

Kalaanjali School of Dance

Presents the Indian Classical Dance Ballet

LUV KUSH

From the Great Epic 'Ramayana'

Verona High School Performing Arts Center
300 Richard Street
Verona, WI 53593

Sunday, May 14, 2006
4:30pm to 6:00pm

Come and witness the story of Luva and Kusha, twin princes born to Lord Rama and Goddess Sita as portrayed in the 3000 year old Hindu epic Ramayana.

When Sita is pregnant with his children, Rama sends Sita away to the forest because he was spoken ill of by a washerman for having accepted Sita back after she was rescued from the captivity of the evil king Ravana. Sita gives birth to twin boys in the forest and the princes are educated by sage Valmiki in all the arts, scriptures and sciences. Many years later, a fight erupts between the boys and Rama's soldiers, and the boys proclaim victory. Surprised, Rama comes to the forest to meet the boys, only to find his wife there and realize that the twin boys are none other than his own. What will happen next? Come and see!

Tickets: $10
Up to 1 free child
admission per family
(age 10 or less)

For tickets, please contact:

Meenakshi Ganesan
608-833-3102
Saritha Jha
608-836-4022
Sanchayita Kar
608-848-9566
Suryanarayanan Ganesan
608-238-3684
Usha Narayanaswamy
608-831-5307
Viji Sivakumar
608-848-9473
Bombay Bazzar
608-270-9822
India House
608-268-0240
Maharaja Groceries
608-827-7188

www.kalaanjali.com

